July Two 2020-2021

An exceptional Thank You from the school governors and leadership

Our governing body, supported by our school leaders, met this week to reflect on the truly exceptional year behind us. While the events of 2020 were a shock to our lives and our society it has been noted that education and our children have borne much of the impact of the challenges of 2021.

What has been noticed at Camelot has been truly exceptional support from parents/carers/our community towards ensuring we give our children the best possible education at this time. We are enormously proud of all the Camelot pupils, parents/carers, community and staff and governors and school leaders want to pass on their exceptional Thank You to all

Reminder on Plans ahead

1. End of term: Wednesday 21st July—from midday onwards

2. School Sports Day—Monday 19th July a.m. (Year 2—6 pupils)

All parents/carers and family members are invited to attend and support Sports Day in the Burgess Park caged area. Sports day events are about fun and participation and can we ask the overly competitive stay at home on this day (aka losing is good)!

3. Early Years & Year 1 Sports Day—Tuesday 20th July at school—morning

4. Summer Showcasing—Tuesday 20th July

Children will bring home their books on Tuesday to showcase with you all they have achieved this year during their time in school. As you will understand, it has been an exceptional year in many ways, not least that when working in tighter bubbles earlier in the year the children's work was given more verbal than written feedback in line with our Covid-19 risk assessments at the time. Please send your child in with a bag for collecting their books at the end of the school day.

+ 5. Summer

- 4 weeks from Monday 26th July

Sports Day 2021

- ♦ All children to come to school already dressed in School PE kits and tracksuits (or plain dark coloured tracksuits). White t-shirts if your child does not have a school PE T-shirt. A non school uniform day.
- ♦ Children inappropriately dressed for Sports Day will not compete in running races towards the end of the day—sorry, standards expected
- ♦ All children need to carry their a bottle of water with them
- ♦ Classes will leave by 9.00 a.m.—If your child is late for school they will miss Sports Day and have to stay at school with younger children
- ♦ Every year, the biggest challenge of Sports Day is overly competitive behaviour... and often from the adults attending. Please remember to set the example that this is a fun, participatory and competitive day.
- ♦ The key risk assessment challenge is going to the toilet... all children must be escorted by an adult when crossing the public road outside the caged area. Please support us in ensuring safe practice in this area.
- ♦ Mr Imran is in charge of the day and parents/carers are asked to inform him if they wish to race in an adult race. Time will determine whether we can run these races
- ♦ Timings if you walking with your child's class:
 - 9.00 a.m. Year 2 & 3 leave 9.05 a.m. Year 4 & Year 5 leave
 - 9.10 a.m. Year 6 leave
 - 11.30 a.m. Year 2 finish and return to school
 - 11.40 a.m. Year 3 finish and return to school
 - 11.50 a.m. Year 4 finish and return to school
 - 12.00 noon. Year 5 finish and return to school
 - 12.10 p.m. Year 6 finish and stay for picnic in the park
- ♦ Medals and prizes will be awarded to the winning team and winning runners in school assembly on the next day
