Happy Holidays
and may all your holidays be filled with rest, relaxing and....

Reading

It's no April's Fools to remind every parent/carer that Reading every day (especially in a holiday period) is the single most important support you can give your child as they grow up. Read together, Read stories to them, Read at bedtime, at dinner time, for fun, for enjoyment, on the bus, in the bath, instead of TV, phone, computer and please, please because it's so, so important for us all.

Please remember the Spring Term finishes today,
Friday 1st April
from 12.00 noon
(and that's also not an April's fools!).

The following classes leave at 12.00 noon: Nursery,
Reception, Year 1 & 3;
then 12.05 p.m. Year 2 & 4;
and 12.10 p.m. Yr 5 & 6 –
all at the normal gates

Please remember the Summer Term starts on Tuesday 19th April from 8.40 a.m. after the Easter Weekend (& Bank Holiday Monday)

Happy Easter to all our families when the special day arrives and especially for the many of us who will end our fasting on Easter Sunday.

... and best wishes to our many families who will begin their time of fasting during Ramadan starting this Sunday 2nd April. A very special time of the year for many.

"A Camelot knight is knighted by the headteacher in assembly in recognition of their excellence in class across the whole term. This is a great honour and the children then arise as Sir..... or Dame..... Knight of Camelot!"
